GROVELAND.

Friends of Miss Alice Peabody Paine and Augustus Swaine Boynton are receiving cards announcing their marriage on Monday, July 19, at Braintree. Both of the young people are well known and respected here in their native town. The bride is the daughter of the late Charles F. and Mrs. Lilla Peabody Paine and a niece of the late Miss Harriet C. Paine, the widely known teacher and authoress, and a granddaughter of the late Rev. John C. and Mrs. Eliza Folger Paine. The groom is the younger of the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Boynton. On account of the recent death of the bride's mother, and of critical illness in the family of the groom, the ceremony was at the rectory in Braintree and the young people were unattended. The marriage is the culmination of a high school romance. The bride, who graduated in 1901, received her diploma at Tufts college in 1906 and has been a member of the faculty of the Abington high school several years, resigning her position in June. Mr. Boynton was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology class of '06, since which he has been a teacher of mechanical drawing in the trades school, New Bristol, Ct., where they will reside after their honeymoon, which they are enjoying in a trip around the cape in their car, and will also go to Nantucket. The young couple have been generously remembered by their friends with beautiful wedding gifts.
